G ACTORS AGENCY

Phone: +46 (0)73 937 57 40
Email: contact@gactorsagency.com
Website: www.gactorsagency.com

Rayan Khosropour

Rayan Khosropour - Biography

Rayan Khosropour is a versatile actor with over seven years of experience across television and radio drama, with roles in award-winning productions and major Tv series. He is known for combining emotional depth with sharp comedic timing, bringing both realism and strong screen presence to every role.
He played Lias in Morden i Sandhamn, delivering an emotionally grounded and authentic performance. He also held a major long-running role as Diamant in SVT's biggest youth series Strula. Originally cast for a single season, the role was extended to over 67 episodes due to his performance, demonstrating strong audience connection and narrative impact. In comedy, he played Samir in Solsidan, where his timing and natural delivery were widely appreciated. And a major supporting role in an upcoming Netflix series.
Rayan works with a method-based approach and is known for being highly professional, prepared, focused, and reliable in auditions and on set. He is especially recognized for knowing the script inside out, then adapting confidently to direction and scene partners. One of his strongest skills is improvisation, allowing him to bring spontaneity and depth to emotionally demanding scenes.
Rayan speaks Swedish and Farsi, and performs in English with a strong American accent. Rayan brings physical capability alongside a wide emotional range, including horse riding and close-combat training developed through over 10 years of experience in karate (black belt) and boxing.