Tiam Miladi

Tiam Miladi - Biography

Tiam Miladi is based in Stockholm.

When Tiams was young, his older brother was an amateur filmmaker and Tiam got his introduction to filmmaking by acting in his brothers feature "förbjuden frukt".

As a teenager he began taking classes at Calle Flygare theater school and he studied there until graduating highschool.. During this time he also worked in the studentfilm "Lardo", a production under Stockholm Film School.

In the summer following his highschool graduation Tiam landed the role of "William Klingblad" in Michaela Hamiltons and Henrik Schyfferts "A class apart", which became the third most watched viaplay show of 2021.

Most recently Tiam starred in the SVT production "Fejk" where he played "Milo".

Tiam has a great passion for music and in his spare time he likes to play the piano and guitar. He also has studied vocal training at Kultutama art school and has experience as a stage vocalist.
